The Mission of the Alliance of Christian Musicians

The ACM exists to promote excellence in the ministries and performance of music in the church by providing education, fellowship, and support for those musicians whose first priority and obligation is obedience and service to their Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ (Matt.6:33). These goals are met through workshops, conferences, concerts, and seminars, as well as mutual sharing of knowledge and experience among its members. The focus of the ACM is on church music, including all of its derivations. The membership is committed to the Bible as found in the Old and New Testaments as the authoritative, inerrant, holy, and revealed Word of God. It recognizes that the Holy Bible is profitable for reproof, correction, and instruction in righteousness (I Tim. 3:16).

Members of ACM recognize that they are called not only to love, support, and encourage one another, but to promote excellence and good works in whatever musical calling God has led them (Heb. 10:24-25; Phil. 2:3-4; Gal. 6:9-10; I John 3:18).

Members of ACM believe that they are called to be holy before the Lord and to minister to all whom He brings into their sphere of influence. They strive to maintain a right relationship with God; obey His commands found in the Bible (Rom. 12:1-2; John 14:21; Eph. 5:3; I Peter 2:11); serve God through their musical talents with all their heart, soul, and mind; and treat others as they would like to be treated (Mark 10:45; Matt. 22:37-39).

The ACM is guided by its Executive Director and Governing Board. They develop activities that work toward the goals of the ACM as set forth in its Mission Statement. They, in turn, are assisted by an ordained pastor chosen jointly by the Executive Director and Governing Board. The ACM year runs concurrently with the calendar year.

ALLIANCE OF CHRISTIAN MUSICIANS

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! ACM was formed in 2001 to meet the needs of the musical Christian community by providing education, inspiration, tools and resources, and camaraderie for those leading God's people in worship. These goals are accomplished in Church Music Symposia, luncheon discussions, concerts, workshops, sharing of resources such as music libraries and musician contacts, and more. The last three of our annual Church Music Symposia have drawn many to hear inspiring performances and lectures by such nationally known artists and theologians as Marva Dawn, Sophie-Veronique Cauchefier Choplin, Robin Leaver, Joan Lippincott, Paul Jones, and John Weaver.

Your tax-deductible donation will enable ACM to continue serving Christian musicians and worship leaders across the United States. ACM established a Pacific Northwest Chapter in 2007 and facilitates workshops and concerts in various locations throughout the country. Please visit www.acmusicians.org to find out more information about our upcoming events.

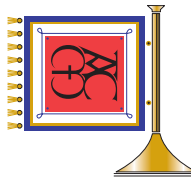

Thank you for your consideration of ACM, and may the Lord richly bless you as you continue to serve Him.

Yours in Christ's Service,

H. Vincent Treadway
Executive Director, ACM
